

Linked Servers

The linked servers report is a quick way to get a list to see what linked servers are configured from your SQL Server to another SQL Server.

You might notice a linked server that is used for the Database Health Historic Monitoring database if the monitoring is being done from a different server.