

Files Report

The files report lists all of the data files and log files associated with a database. The chart at the top displays the relative sizing of each database files.