

Wait Types to Ignore

Below are some of the wait types that you can typically ignore.

CXPACKET unless it is significantly huge.

VDI_CLIENT_OTHER – typically not an issue. It typically means a new replica is seeding or any other user initiated workflow that triggers copies like update service tier, etc..

SOS_WORK_DISPATCHER – an indication that threads are waiting for work to do, and continues to be logged while they are sitting idle.